

International Rhythm Course

Schedule International Rhythm Course Utrecht, 2022

Monday July 11 through Friday July 15

Monday through Thursday

9:30 to 10 - arrive/coffee/tea

10 to 11 - Period 1

full group warmup session

Monday morning: introductions

Tuesday through Thursday: group warmup on material from day before

11:15 to 13:00 - Period 2

full group with individual teacher

Monday: BC Manjunath - konnakol syllables and making your own exercises

Tuesday: Dr. Mysore Manjunath - Raga and Carnatic composition

Wednesday: Kristina Fuchs - circle songs and polyrhythms

Thursday: Ned McGowan - tuplets, groupings and pedagogy

13 to 14 - Lunch

14:00 to 15:45 - Period 3

split into small groups

sessions with each teacher

16 - 17 - Period 5

full group 2nd session (practice full group piece)

Friday during the day - lessons and rehearsals to be announced

Friday evening, 19:30 - 21:30 - group concert

Corona message:

Unfortunately the Corona virus is not yet a thing of the past, although it has been taken very seriously (in general) here in the Netherlands. The Utrecht Conservatory follows the regulations suggested by the Dutch Government and has also developed its own practices which fit its situation, such as airing out rooms in between lessons. At the moment masks are not required in buildings but should it become recommended this and/or other regulations will be implemented.

(June 17, 2022)